Last Week's Meeting
The meeting started with the musical stylings of Michael Harrison and Sam Bishop leading us in My Country Tis of Thee.

For the invocation, Michael Harrison made thoughtful remarks on the topic of freedom and asked for a moment of silence in honor of 9/11.

A triple threat then led a group of happy Rotarians in the welcome song. Thanks Stoney, Wally Walker and Murph!

Sharon Caiocca won the club raffle which was donated by Seghetti & Waxler

The Detective Report was brought to us by the one and only Stephen Karon, who was spotted delivering presents to each table prior to the meeting…

Some Happy Dollar highlights: Michael Harrison celebrating a new grand baby born on 9.9 so he donated $99. Annie returned from Hawaii with lots of happy thoughts and Happy Dollars… aloha! Fred Gawlick noted he's happy about football season, Go Niners.

Detective topic of the day – impulse buys… please share!

- Sarah Madsen – earrings at Costco – small in price big in joy
- Jill Stone – spontaneous January trip to Milwaukee, totally worth it
- Some members such as Cristian Gonzalez and Erik Dybdahl noted they weren't spontaneous spenders

The presents Stephen brought were rewards to those who shared their stories. The gifts that are sure to keep on giving included a paddle ball set, hacksaw, measuring tape… and others.

Club Barbecue
Make sure to put October 8th on your calendar for the annual Club BBQ. That's a Friday evening with details to follow.

Last Week's Speaker
Jorian Wilkins from the Downtown Association was the speaker and gave a broad outline of the services the Downtown association provides. He declared Santa Cruz as the best place to call home.

The downtown association serves 550 businesses downtown through a staff and a 13 member board of directors. They promote downtown for business, entertainment and dining opportunities. They also provide activities for business members and downtown visitors.

There are new businesses downtown and many places to enjoy outdoor dining. In fact over half of outdoor dining in Santa Cruz is located downtown.

There is new housing and retail being developed downtown as well as a new Santa Cruz Warriors Stadium. So the message is: Go Downtown! Check it out at www.downtownsantacruz.com
