Announcements

New member: Ashley Thompson, Estate Planning Attorney. Jeanette Pagliaro and Fred Gawlick sponsors. Welcome to the club, Ashley!

The sock drive has been extended through month end. Get your donations in now if you haven't already.

Last Week's Highlights:

Invocation. Sharon Caiocca shared a poem about what it means to be successful, what success looks like. The author is unknown, but the club thought it was great. Awesome job (again!), Sharon Detective: Jim Zenner was out raising money behind the lectern. The club had some Happy Dollars: Ian - The power of Rotary; Michael Harrison - 10 year a member; Twin grandbabies for Jim Kelly, and a 6th puppy for Jim Weisenstein.

Then, Jim went to work. Rich Beach was fined $5 as a thank you for all the work he's done. Tom Foster, who yelled at our detective earlier, was properly fined. Mo's favorite costume is a... jock strap??? Not to worry, folks, Mo isn't trick or treating in your neighborhood this year, at least not in his favorite costume. And last, but not least, a Halloween themed dad joke: Why don't monsters eat ghosts? Because they taste like sheet!!

Raffle: Rich Beach was the winner of a bottle of fine wine and a gift card donated by Sharon Caiocca. Thanks Sharon!

Redwoods Program & Centennial Gala:

What a week! On Friday, the Redwoods Program at Henry Cowell where many of our club's own Rotarian's helped us travel back in time and take a walk through the history of the dedication of our beloved Henry Cowell state park.

And on Saturday, our Centennial Gala celebration that was held at the Cocoanut Grove featured a night of fun, many speeches by dignitaries such as Rotary International Vice President Nikki Scott and congressman Jimmy Panetta, music, and friends.

It was a well-attended event with a dashing and sophisticated crowd. Thank you to everyone in attendance who helped celebrate.

Last Week's (10/14) Program – Rayvon Williams, Watsonville Airport

Rayvon Williams is a talented public speaker who put on a great program highlighting our county's airport and some of the challenges it faces. He is meeting those challenges with thoughtful solutions.

The airport faces, economic, infrastructure and community Issues. It receives no money from the general fund. Instead, it raises money from the FAA, leases, fuel sales, and fees paid to the airport.
