Last Week's Highlights:

Invocation. Jill Stone shared a quote by Albert Einstein "There are only two ways to live your life. One is as though nothing is a miracle. The other is as though everything is a miracle."

Exempt: Michael Harrison is the exempt Rotarian for November 2022.

Detective: It was a timely detective report from a politician just prior to election day - Who's your supervisor? The club was quizzed on their local representatives in government. The club was more versed than the average citizen if this editor were to guess. Great job, Rotarians, and thank you Manu. We're glad you don't have to sweat re-election this cycle.

Raffle: Kris Munro was the winner of a Hindquarter gift card and a beautifully wrapped bottle of wine.

Last Week's Program – Santa Cruz Warriors:

Our very own Chris Murphy (aka "Murph") stood behind the lectern to highlight the upcoming 10th anniversary season of our Santa Cruz Warriors on opening night. Murph was smooth on the mic as usual.

To be clear, Murph oversees the business operations, not the basketball. What's he and his team accomplished on the business side? They've been named G-League Franchise of the year 3 times since the award's inception (out of just 5 years total), and Chris was named NBA G-League Executive of the Year following the 2016-2017 Season. Suffice it to say, the Santa Cruz Warriors franchise with Murph at the helm is setting the standard for the NBA G-League.

On the basketball side, the Warriors were the 2015 G-League champions, and over 30 players have played for the Santa Cruz Warriors that have played in the NBA.

Highlighting his team-first mentality, Murph noted he isn't opposed to taking credit for any on-court success in the future. The 2015 championship was won just prior to Murph's arrival, which his colleagues are quick to point out.
