Last Meeting April 28th, 2023

The meeting was busy with song, recognition and opportunity. First, Sam Bishop and Michael Harrison opened, followed by Karen Beeson with the thought for the day. In the recognition department, Ashley Thompson earned her Blue Badge and Chris Murphy was properly recognized as the Santa Cruz County Chamber Person of the Year! Ralph Miljanich presented an opportunity for international service in Ecuador. The plan, known as The Casa Maria Amor Back to School Cash Project aims to raise $10,000 in support of a womens' and childrens' shelter in Cuenca Ecuador. The money is to be used for school uniforms, backpacks, books and other school supplies. There is a travel opportunity attached to the program, so see Ralph if you have questions about the possibility of travel to Ecuador.

Ashley Thompson jumped in with a quick detective report, gathering happy dollars and bi@ch bucks. Ashley then quizzed our members on estate planning dos and don'ts. Don't be like Prince or Pablo Picasso, get your estate plan managed by a professional. The report was both informative and entertaining!

The speaker for the meeting was Jennifer Fenton from Equine Healing Collaborative. Jennifer gave a very interesting presentation on what horses can do for humans when it comes to therapy. The collaborative is staffed by licensed or license-eligible mental health clinicians, and partners with the University of Kentucky on research/evidence for their programs. Their programs include individuals and groups, couples and families. They offer help with trauma, autism, substance abuse, eating disorders and other issues.
