A Message from President Donna:

Dear Rotarians,

Thanks to all who attended our Friday lunch at The Back Nine. So many showed up that we had to keep adding tables. We must have missed each other a lot!

We also welcomed back Larry Fogelquist and Janet Gluch, who had just returned from Guatemala. There, they helped install the water purification system. They'll have some good stories, some of which they've already shared at lunch.

I'm sorry that I will be missing the next two Rotary meetings. Please go easy on Jim Weisenstein as he leads the meeting.

Love to you all ...
President Donna

Meeting:

It was a beautiful day outside full of sunshine. Once you got inside the meeting hall you could feel the excitement and happiness in the air. Today's meeting was all about giving. The spirit of the meeting matched the holiday season and the hearts of Rotarians. However, we also received one of the most exciting and entertaining programs of the year from Cheryl Anderson and "Cantiamo." So exciting that Santa Claus himself showed up.

We started the meeting by singing jingle bells, no doubt a dear tune to the jolly man himself. Donna Maurillo grabbed the mic and led the crowd. We were amazing. It probably helped that we had an outstanding group of guests. The crowd was peppered with our spouses and Steve from Ben Lomond formerly known as Steve from Reno. Steve promised to join our club. Atta boy Steve! Give him a pat on the back.

Speaking of pats on the back, be sure to give a pat on the back to Ian Mackenzie for giving us all delicious Christmas tree shaped chocolates. Tom Reese gave all the bell ringers a pat on the back for ringing the Salvation Army bell. Finally several pats on the back should be given to the following Paul Harris Plus fellow's: Jeanette Pagliaro, Mike Allard, John Huffman, Jim Weisenstein, Larry Wolfsen, Wally Dale, and Jack Ritchey

One guy who gave himself a pat on the back was Jim Weisenstein by purchasing the winning raffle ticket. He won a generous donation of a personally selected bottle of red wine and a fine certificate to Gabriela's restaurant given by Grant Dow.

Rusty badge speech: by Gary Reese.

Gary Reese reminisced about his presidency. He spent a lot of time telling us stories and seemingly daydreaming about Wally Walker. One choice story was about Gary hiring a male stripper in an attempt to embarrass the detective. Gary asked Wally to tip the stripper for him. Wally, being the generous man that he is, gave the stripper a little extra. The stripper was very thankful and proceeded to do his business. Gary had asked for a PG rated show, instead he got an R rated show in front of all the parents of visiting scholarship recipients. Gary may not make the best decisions when it comes to pranks but he makes great decisions about his companionship in the club.

Detective:

Linda Burroughs was the detective. She gave us several short performances of catchy tunes on the piano. We were to name that tune. There was a sneaky twist for those that guessed correctly. Instead of preserving themselves from being fined, they had to fine someone else. Several Rotarians reveled in the chance to fine their fellows. Others chose to pay the fine themselves. Linda continued her jovial stylings and weaved us thru an array of catchy tunes, none catchier than her final song. She chose her husband John Burroughs for the final guess. He stood and she played the happy birthday song. We all chimed in and serenaded him on his most special day.

Program: Cantiamo means we sing in Italian. We heard tremendous singing and mostly in English.

Board Meeting will be on 1/14 at 5:30pm. Karen Beeson will host at Janet Gluch's house, 6 Country Lane Scotts Valley. Anyone wishing to attend should contact Ian at 831-345-5182 or ian@santacruzrotary.com
