Message from President Donna:

Dear Rotarians,

Wasn't the Vocational Scholarship Program last week impressive? It was inspiring to see people who are going back to school for careers in dental hygiene, performing arts, medical assisting and other fields.

As Rotarians we should all be proud of what we do to help students. Thank you for being so generous with gifting to our foundation.

Best,
President Donna

Meeting:

Keith McKenzie opened our meeting with a poignant invocation centered on the theme PASS IT ON referencing a quote by Albert Einstein. Einstein and Rotarian principles were "relative" with our efforts to help young people, especially the Vocational Scholarship recipients attending our meeting.

Cynthia Killian generously donated a raffle prize of Flowers, Wine and Restaurant gift certificate which Richard Beach won. Important to note, Richard exclaimed he has won the raffle four times, but who is counting?

Thornton Kontz deserves a Rotary-attaboy as detective. He gets a rating of 6 from the Rotarians for Detective Reform Council for no group fines or trivia. From the Rotary Council for Maximum Money Extraction, he gets only a 3 having raised just $106. As a young man Thornton read Popular Science while his friends would sneak peeks at their father's Playboys. It was a telling illustration of the development of a young mind becoming a legendary legal weapon.

Program:

Michael Harrison led a compelling program featuring recipients of our Vocational Scholarship Program. Rotarians enjoyed seeing and hearing directly from scholarship recipients.

Their respective stories and heart-felt appreciation for Rotary generosity was apparent.

Assisting with the program was Jim Howes of the Santa Cruz County ROP and Ilene Hill of Cabrillo College.

We awarded 20 scholarships totaling $14,500.

Wally Walker was acknowledged for having presided over the creation of the Vocational Scholarship Program during his term as Rotary President. In typical Wally fashion we got an amusing story of young vocational law enforcement scholarship prospects being "flashed" by a female inmate during a jail tour.

LOST DOG

My dog Klaus, is lost and very, very crazy. He is off his medication which helps to decrease his hostility. If you see Klaus, do NOT make eye contact. He will literally attempt to rip your face off.

In fact, I don't want him back. Just call animal control and let them deal with it.
