Today's Program

SEUN OGUNTOYE our Partner in Service!

“Partners in Rotary Service” brings friends from throughout the world to share their experience of how Rotary has changed their lives and the lives of people in their countries. Our Partners have been selected because they can speak to us, in the first person, about the results of our generosity.

When our Partners come to our clubs, we have asked them to share the good that The Rotary Foundation has created. We want them to show the faces of the lives that have been touched. But, more importantly, we have asked them to extend a hand in friendship. Make a new friend in a land far away, just because we are all Rotarians.

Programs - Larry Fogelquist

Invocation: Martin Bernal

Detective: Bob Bosso

Message from President Donna:

Dear Rotarians,

Please give a big Santa Cruz Rotary welcome to Seun Oguntoye, who has come all the way from Nigeria to be with us. He returns home tomorrow, so let's make his last day in the US memorable.

Next week is Halloween. You know what the means. Show up in costume – even if it's just a wig, a funny hat, or a glittery mask. What's your true personality? John Wayne? Mother Theresa? Or, Pee-Wee Herman? Let's see what ya got. (Yes, I'll dress up too...)

Cheers,

President Donna

Meeting:

Jim Zenner is a very gifted orator indeed. His invocation was on the money and up lifting. Should real estate sales ever dry up, there is a place for Jim at any church in town.

Ever wonder why The Grey Eagles are always so jovial? A hidden camera captured these “pre-meeting, pre-loading” shots of the Eagles roosting.

Four guys walk into a bar, a proctologist, a fireman, a tea maker and a telephone guy .

This beats Hooters ...

Dick Wilson won the door prize donated by Chuck Downey. The gift was a bottle of wine and a generous gift certificate at the Shadowbrook Restaurant.

Richard Beach was recognized for having funded a Rotary scholarship in honor of his recently deceased 94 year old father.

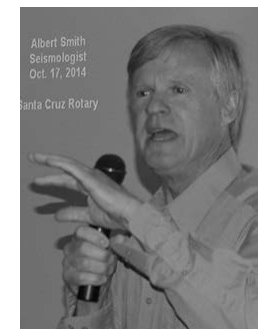

Contrary to the Spokes bulletin, Gerry Turgeon was our detective. He collected a $150 worth of Happy $ and “Rat-out-friend” $ quickly. He spent the balance of the program recollecting stories from the 1989 earthquake. He did produce a picture of President Donna with a snake, confessing that this “Turned Him On.” We didn't want a visual on that one ...

Program:

LARRY! LARRY! LARRY! Showered with adoration Mr. Foglequist proceeded with a long introduction of Al Smith. He did toss a couple of gems our way that are worth noting. In reference to Al's education “Dude! You totally make me feel like I have wasted my life.” In a Bro-mance- esk line (from the movie, “An Officer and A Scientist) “You had me with just the PHD.”

Al Smith is a Seismologist at UCSC. His presentation was captivating. It started with a series of TV video news clips recapping the effects of the earthquake. Additionally we learned about the cause and effect of all things Seismic. We were told Al would predict an earthquake, if he did I missed it. An excellent program all in all! Atta-boy LARRY!

Quote of the day!

With Al, “seis matters.”
