SHMUEL THALER – Photographer

Shmuel Thaler has been a staff photographer at the Santa Cruz Sentinel since 1987. His photographs have been published in every leading newspaper in the United States as well as in Time and Newsweek, and viewed on the CBS Evening News and NBC Nightly News.

Shmuel has co-authored 5 children's books and his photographs illustrate numerous books including his collaboration with George Levenson on 'Bread Comes to Life' and the classic 'Pumpkin Circle', which has more than 100,000 copies in print and is held by every major library system in the country.

A Reading from Sister Donna:

Dear Rotarians and Fellow Sinners,

Thank you for the enthusiastic welcome you gave Seun, our Nigerian guest last week. He was super impressed with our club. I would not be a bit surprised if he ends up as RI president someday.

Coming up soon, let's have a day when everyone brings a guest. Once people meet us, they will be inspired to join our superior ranks. So start thinking of who you want to invite. I will let you know the date.

Cheers,
President & "Naughty Nun" Donna

Meeting:

We opened the meeting with a new twist in honor of our Giants by singing Take Me Out To The Ball Game.

Martin Bernal's innovation was a Ghandi's version of our Four Way Test! ... worth repeating. Your beliefs become your thoughts, Your thoughts become your words,

Your words become your actions,
Your actions become your habits,
Your habits become your values,
Your values become your destiny."

Bob Rudolph was recognized for his birthday. We can't help but love this guy, so an honorable mention on a big birthday!

Bob Bosso, our detective, began his presentation with happy dollars. As we have grown to expect, LARRY (no need for last name now) was recognized for more good deeds – a computer rescue / swap prior to the meeting. The balance of the report was a photo before and after routine – pictures of Rotarians as kids and as they look today.

Gary Reece won the door prize which was provided by Blaine Brokaw. It was a nice bottle of wine and restaurant gift certificate. President Donna made it clear that she expected to share the prize

Program:

Our guest speaker was Seun Oguntoye who is the president of his Rotary Club in Ilorin, Nigeria. He has been here for two weeks visiting every club in our district. Seun was very comfortable speaking in front of our club. He moved with ease carrying a cordless microphone and coordinated his presentation with a Powerpoint slide show.

The point was made about the great value of The Rotary Foundation in that 89% of all funds collected go directly to programs. He sighted specific projects in Nigeria where Rotary is making a difference. We can all be proud to have played a small part in these programs:
Blood Bank · Cardiac Monitors · Ultrasound · Defibrillators · Water Purification.

In Nigeria there have been only 6 cases of Polio reported in 2014. For 2015 they are hopeful to have "zero" cases of Polio.

Bryan Williams – a rare SELFIE! Quick editors note to thank our photographer and honor student.

The Votes are in!
Best Bowtie – Larry!
Most Charming – Larry!
